Special Offer to Our New Customers

$1 IRIS FREE WITH YOUR FIRST ORDER

We want you for our customer! If you will send us that first order we are confident that you will buy from us regularly, and tell your friends about us too.

So, if you have not tried Edenwald plants, send us at least a $3.00 order, not including Collections, and we will add, as a free extra, one of the following $1.00 irises: Bandmaster, Blue Shimmer, Master Charles, Remembrance, Sable, Ola Kala.

Should your order consist of daylilies, you may wish to receive one of the following daylilies instead: Demon, Golden Grain, Matador or Persian Princess.

Please state your preference and remember—your order must be not less than $3.00 not counting Collections. The latter are too heavily discounted to qualify for any additional premium.

If your first order amounts to $10.00 or more, exclusive of Collections, you may select two of the gift plants listed above.

Special Offer to Former Customers

It has been our custom to include free extra plants with orders both as a token of our appreciation and to make sure the customer receives full and generous value. If the variety so included is already among the customer's collection the gift is pointless and disappointing to both customer and ourselves. For this reason we prefer to privilege the customer to select extras of his own choice in the amount of ten percent of the order (ten cents for each dollar ordered), collections excluded. New customers may avail themselves of this offer instead of the free iris offered above, if preferred, but not both.

Please Read Before Ordering

SHIPPING COST—If your order is less than $3.00 add 50c for packing and mailing. Orders of $3.00 or more are shipped postpaid in the United States.

OUR HAT IS IN THE RING!

We're putting on a red-hot campaign for your favor this election year! In view of the fact that we haven't received a single campaign contribution from the vested interests, or anyone else, we feel sure that our support will come strong right from the grass roots. In fact, we base our strategy even deeper than that, because iris and daylily roots grow deeper than grass roots and our plants develop the strongest and most vigorous roots you can find anywhere.

Handicapped as we are, by distance and the total lack of campaign contributions mentioned, we have to do our hand-shaking and baby-kissing by mail, right here in this foreword. This is regrettable, especially in regard to the baby-kissing because we get the urge to kiss babies even when we're not campaigning. But you will probably agree with us that little babies ought not to be kissed by anyone except their parents for sanitary reasons and for reasons of decorum if the baby is already full-grown. So if you will act as our proxy and give your baby a big hug and a kiss for Edenwald, then we will both have something in common and can get right down to the basic issues of this campaign.

WE'VE SERVED TEN YEARS

Pleasing our customers, that is. For ten short years we have worked our heads to the bone figuring out ways to offer better plants and better values. We say "short" years because it has been fun and the time has just flown. We enjoy growing our acres of fine plants and it's a real pleasure to select the very finest of them to fill your orders, and to ship them just as soon as we dare after digging so that you'll get them fresh. That way they hardly know they've been moved from our garden to yours.

FREE PREMIUMS, BUT GOOD!

We offer valuable premiums and many bargain Collections. These plants are not runts from over-crowded plantings, but the same high quality that characterizes all of our shipments. Should you leave the selection of varieties to us, we will not palm off on you the ones we want to get rid of. Instead, we will choose, carefully, the ones which will be most likely to give you pleasure and satisfaction.

AND THAT'S OUR PLATFORM

If we err or fail to please you in any way, we stand instantly ready to make whatever adjustment may be fair and equitable. Do we get your vote in 1952?

SHIPPING SEASON—No shipments in the spring. We begin shipping iris the last week in June and continue until Nov. 1st. Daylilies are shipped in late August, September and October. If iris and daylilies are ordered together they will be shipped during the daylily season. If iris are desired earlier each shipment must total at least $3.00 or extra shipping charges will be incurred.

TIME OF SHIPMENT—Orders are shipped in the same sequence as received unless you request later shipment when ordering.

TERMS—Remittance must accompany order. Money order or personal check are acceptable. Currency or stamps at customer's risk. Stamps of 3c denomination or less, are acceptable for small orders. Do not send stamps of larger denomination. No C. O. D. shipments.

ORDER EARLY—Some varieties are always sold out before the end of the season. Orders are filled in the sequence received and you may avoid disappointment by ordering early.

SUBSTITUTIONS—We do not substitute without permission but do appreciate your consent to do so, if necessary. Otherwise we will refund for varieties sold out. If you would rather receive alternate selections than a refund, please tell us.

GUARANTEE—We guarantee to ship you healthy, thrifty plants, freshly dug, disease and pest free and true to name. We do not assume responsibility for their cultural success after they leave our hands.

ELECT IRISES AND DAYLILIES TOO!

If you are a beginner in gardening, you will be experimenting with all sorts of flowers and you will experience many disillusionments. Eventually, you will come to realize that there are no other garden flowers as fascinating as iris. Their color range alone is enough to set them apart, but there are other qualities equally desirable. They are large, yet not coarse; colorful, yet not blatant; glamorous, but within reach of any purse. They are graceful, fragrant, floriferous, easy to grow and quick to form luxuriant clumps.

Following the season of iris bloom comes the daylily, the summer-flowering perennial supreme! No other flower is making the strides in popularity of the modern daylily. The reasons are not hard to find. Be sure to read about them farther along in the catalog.

BACKLOG, BACKGROUND, BACKYARD

With these two flowers the backlog for your garden, and some shrubbery for a background, you can transform your backyard into a veritable fairyland. Or paint a living picture that will make your picture window real and bring exclamations of delight from friends and visitors and admiring glances from the passers-by.

NEWER VARIETIES ARE MOST EXCITING

If you are a more experienced grower, you have learned how necessary it is to your own personal enjoyment to replace the old varieties that no longer thrill you, with the newer and more exciting varieties that do. Indeed, it is axiomatic that a garden should never be allowed to become static but that new plants and new plant combinations should constantly be planned to keep your interest fresh and alive.

COLD FACTS ARE OFTEN WARMEST PRAISE

We always regret that space limitations force us to such brief descriptions. We'd like to do justice to these beautiful flowers, but the wide scope of our listing requires that we give the cold facts and little more. Be assured, however, that every plant we list has some special quality or attraction that has earned it a place in our catalog. It would be obviously impossible to show pictures of more than a small sample of the nearly thousand varieties described, so we have to depend upon your own imagination to visualize the beauty we so inadequately portray.

100 BEST IRIS? THE MEANING OF "fsje"

Through the years, there have been various attempts to single out the "100 BEST" iris. First to publish such a list was Schreiner so we are happy to again be privileged to designate this pioneer grower's choice for 1952, by appending the letter "s" to the descriptions of those we list. Similarly, Mrs. Elizabeth Nesmith, of Fairmount Gardens, Lowell, Mass., has also kindly permitted us to indicate her choice and those on her list are designated by the letter "f." These two dealers, Schreiner of Salem, Oregon, and Mrs. Nesmith of Massachusetts, also travel to other regions during the blooming season and you could not find better qualified judges of iris in all the world.

The letter "j" designates the favorites of 262 accredited judges of the American Iris Society who voted in the annual poll, the letter "e" represents the choice of your humble servant, Edenwald Gardens.

IN AMERICA YOU VOTE AS YOU PLEASE

Sometimes these various selections agree, sometimes they don't. This is only natural because the margin of choice is sometimes very close and there are other influences that affect one's decisions. These may be personal preferences, climatic conditions, lack of acquaintance with competing varieties, differences of soil or season, and the human weakness of "following the crowd." We give them to you for what they may be worth but at the same time we recommend that you not be influenced by the other fellow's choice but rather that you have a mind of your own. No one is qualified to tell you what your likes and dislikes should be and sometimes an iris that lacks technical perfection may prove to be a better choice for the average gardener. We think that dependability is sometimes overlooked, in our quest for beauty of color and form.

POPULAR DAYLILIES TOO

On another page, you will find a list of the year's most popular daylilies, chosen in a poll by the accredited judges of The Hemerocallis Society, and we are sure you will find this interesting also.

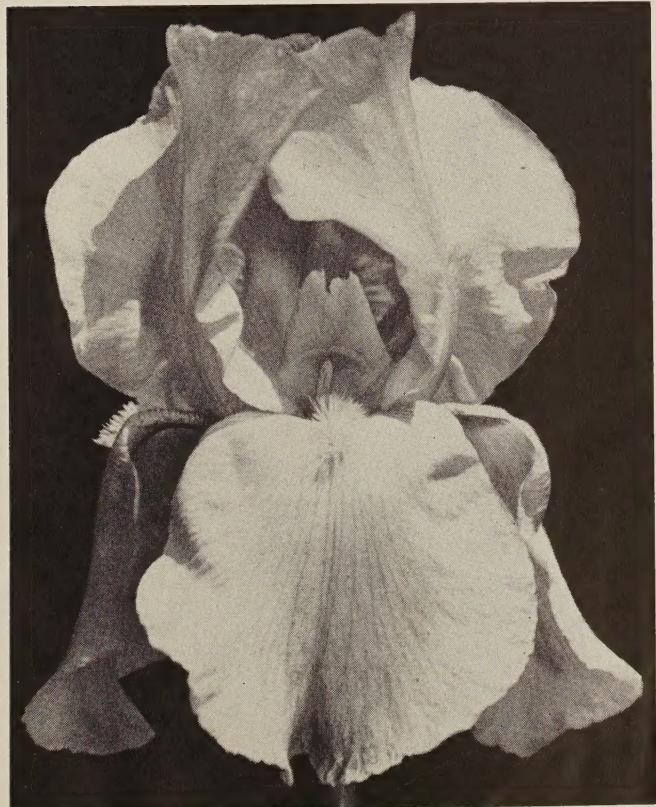

COME OVER TO MY HOUSE

Edenwald Gardens are always open to visitors, and we'd feel forsaken if there were not at least a couple of them prowling around. All are free to browse without hindrance. You are always cordially welcome and if you should find it convenient to come and would like specific information about blooming dates, we shall be glad to respond to your inquiry. Normally, peak bloom of tall bearded iris occurs about May 20th, Japanese iris about June 10th, and daylilies the first half of July.

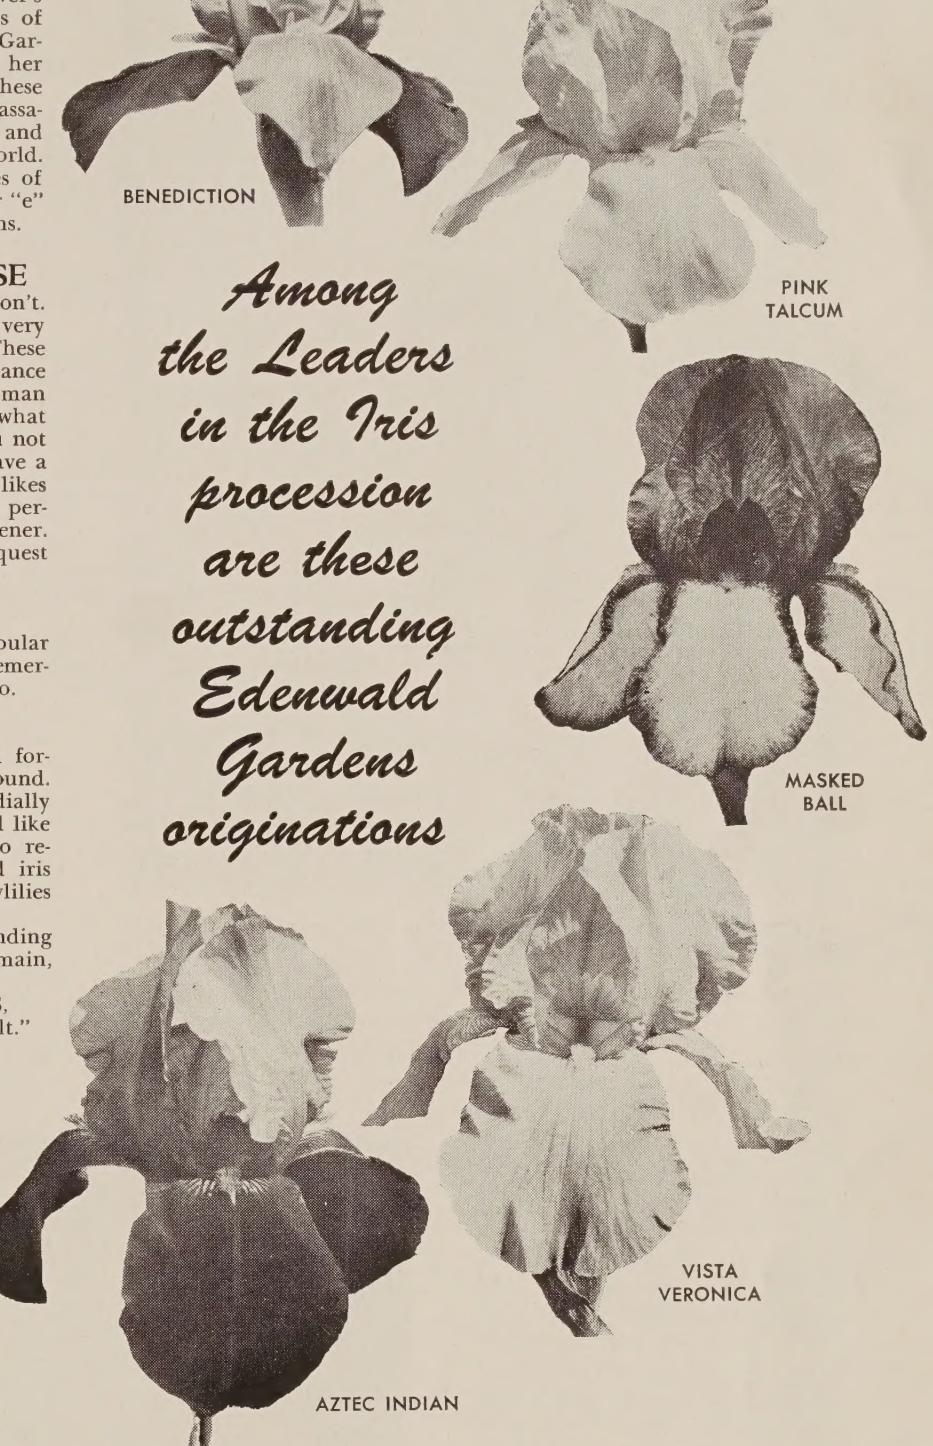

With thanks for your patronage, your kindness in recommending us to others, and for the many "love letters" you wrote us, we remain,

Sincerely yours,

EDITH and WALTER BUSS,
"Ede & Walt."

BROADRIPPLE

1952 Edenwald Introduction

BROADRIPPLE—(Buss 1952) M.38". Nobly proportioned, this is the broadest-petaled iris we have ever seen. Fully $3\frac{1}{4}$ inches across the blade of the fall and 2 inches at the haft, with standards but little less, the flower is so full and voluminous and yet so proportionate and refined in ensemble and so softly colored that it conveys no feeling of coarseness or gigantism. One merely marvels and wonders how much more luxuriant an iris can get. Self-colored in soft aster-blue without a discordant note, the broadly rippled petals are in perfect balance, the standards roundly domed and firmly held, the falls gracefully arched and hanging. The thick, leathery substance is truly remarkable and the flowers endure for days without deformation or disarray in spite of their impressive size. Branching is just right and the sturdy stalk is most fortunately capable of supporting the magnitude of its load. We predict a rewarding and enduring future for BROADRIPPLE. We believe this iris will find favor among gardeners for many years to come. \$20.00

FLAMELY —(Cook 1942) M.36".	A radiant orange-red. Standards ochre-red to terra cotta. Falls, garnet-brown. Medium-large of splendid shape, good substance and texture.	$0.75
FLORA CAMPBELL —(Hill 1940) M.34".	Glowing tones of warm red-brown and peach-red. Of flaring form, this is one of the liveliest red-toned irises we have.	$0.50
FLORA ZENOR —(J. Sass 1941) M.40".	Pink, the shade of foam on a strawberry soda with rosy lines at the haft and conspicuous tangerine beard. Free-flowering and vigorous, it strikes a new note in the garden picture.	$0.50
FLORENTINE —(Cayeux 1937) M.37".	Enormous white plicata, entirely dusted and speckled with soft blue giving the effect of a hazy French blue. A beautiful and vigorous French importation.	$0.50
FORT TICONDEROGA —(K. Smith 1948) ML.36".	Standards, between burnt orange and burnt sienna; falls, velvety garnet. Brilliant color with clean haft.	$8.00

FORTUNES FAVOR —(DeForest 1944) M.36". Ruffled giant of glistening tan with an overlay of rosy lavender on the broad falls. Heavy orange beard.	$1.50	GOLDEN SYMPHONY —(Horton 1944) VL.38". Standards yellow; falls blue, edged yellow. Very late and superior blue and yellow blend. e.	$6.00
FRANCELLA —(McKee 1944) M.38". Very bright yet mellow chrome-yellow enlivened by heavy orange beard. Good in the east but disappointing here.	$1.50	GOLDEN TREASURE —(Schreiner 1936) M.38". Shimmering silky cream with an outpouring of golden yellow from the center. Outstanding. sj.	$0.50
FRANCONIA —(Graves 1942) M.40". Cool and classic as white marble. Huge, firmly textured white with domed standards and arched, flaring falls in perfect proportion. A high ranking white.	$2.00	GOOD NEWS —(Kleinsorge 1946) M.32". Brilliant mustard-gold, very ruffled, with narrow copper band near outer edge of fall. Wide domed standards. Sister seedling of Bryce Canyon.	$2.00
FRANK ADAMS —(Lapham 1937) M.45". Maize-yellow standards. Deep rose falls. Tall; vigorous; floriferous. Flower, stalk and foliage all boldly proportioned. A grand iris.	$0.50	GRAND CANYON —(Kleinsorge 1942) M.36". Odd deep-colored blend of plum, copper and gold, entirely individual. Of bold size and slightly ruffled. sj.	$0.75
FRANK PUGLIESE —(Lapham 1947) M.38". Described, by the introducer, as a redder and better Christabel, more of a self, fiery and lustrous with good form and branching.	$3.00	GREAT LAKES —(Cousins 1938) M.42". Crisp and flaring light blue, truer than Shining Waters, rugged and hardy. Bold in flower and foliage, of stately height and perfect branching, no iris ever more richly deserved the Dykes Medal, which it received in 1942. sj.	$0.75
FRIEDA MOHR —(Mohr 1926) ML.42". Large lilac rose with a gay, semi-flaring form and captivating color that has added charm to gardens for 20 years.	$0.50	GREENGLOW —(Muhlestein 1949) M.40". Described as white with a strong suffusion of greenish chartreuse. Large, wide-petaled, well-substanced, well-branched, unusual.	$5.00
GALLANTRY —(Whiting 1945) M.38". Medium dark blue self of intensely rich coloring. Large flowers, beautifully ruffled with widely flaring falls.	$1.50	GREEN PASTURES —(Heller 1947) M.50". Chartreuse-yellow with a touch of blue at the beard. Large, tall and vigorous. Highly praised by some experts, but not by us.	$2.50
GARDEN FLAME —(H. Sass 1941) ML.34". Rosy garnet with a most luminous quality, hard to describe. No disfiguring haft marking; large broad petals, it is one of the most handsome reds.	$1.00	GUDRUN —(Dykes 1931) EM.36". Very large, heavily-textured warm white with golden beard. One of the most universally admired irises ever introduced. Winner of English Dykes Medal in 1931. j.	$0.50

Light yellow standards and the same color edges the clean white falls. Both are rimmed with "chantilly" lacing. Excellent. $10.00

No other reputable Iris dealer offers the wide choice of varieties featured by Edenwald Gardens. This service to our customers is not most profitable to ourselves and involves problems of space in our propagating fields and in our catalog.

In an effort to cope with the catalog space problem, we are trying this new feature. By condensing the descriptions of the following lot of Irises, many more can be listed on a page. Most have been fully described in previous editions.

The saving in cost resulting from this space saving is passed on to our customers in the form of extra values and affords a rare opportunity not only to beginners but to all who find in this offer the opportunity to add interest and variety to their plantings at low cost. These plants are all from freshly planted fields and equal in every way to our customary high standard of quality.

WHAT CONSTITUTES A GOOD IRIS

For the benefit of those who are newly interesting themselves in iris, we repeat the following brief commentary on the qualities considered desirable in these flowers.

Color, although the most important and most instantly appreciated quality, is not, by itself, the final measure of iris worth. Besides clarity or richness of color we want a bloom with good form and broad petals, the standards firm and held in closed position at the top, or nearly so, and in pleasing proportion to the falls, which may flare or droop, but which should not be strappy, narrow-waisted or pinched.

The bloom should be large enough to match the length of stem, which for tall-bearded iris should be thirty inches or more. A small flower on a tall stem looks "leggy" and a huge flower on a short stem looks "dumpy."

There are some exceptions to the thirty-inch minimum requirement. These are now termed "border irises."

Stems should be branched so that the flowers do not crowd, and they should be strong enough to resist drooping from the weight of the flowers or toppling because of wind or weather. The texture of the petals is important too, and the substance should be tough and durable enough to withstand sun and wind and remain fresh-looking for a reasonable length of time. Colors should not fade too easily in the sun, nor spot too readily from drops of moisture.

The base or "haft" of the fall should not be discordantly colored or covered with coarse and ugly veining. When smoothly colored it is sometimes called a "quiet" or a "clean" haft.

Some irises are temperamental. To be generally acceptable an iris should perform well in different sections of the country and be winter-hardy. Unfortunately, some of the loveliest sorts originating in California are not hardy in Northern winters and some of the most beautiful varieties of the Middle West and East are complete failures in California. Quite frequently rhizomes from regions of wide seasonal differences will require time to adjust themselves before blooming.

Rhizomes which are well grown will be more likely to bloom the first year than those which are not well-grown because the bloom-stalk buds are formed during the previous growing season.

BOOKS ABOUT IRIS

There are two very excellent and recently published books on the subject of iris, which we can enthusiastically recommend. As a service to our customers, we'll be glad to act as the source of supply if you wish to order one or both. They are:

THE IRIS—AN IDEAL HARDY PERENNIAL

Packed with iris lore, this interesting book, written by sixteen outstanding experts, will add to your enjoyment of growing Iris. How to plant, keep healthy and use effectively in the garden; genetics; how to grow seedlings; disease and pest control; Dykes Medal winners of all time, etc. Well illustrated. Published by the American Iris Society. 2nd Edition, 226 pages 6"x9". Paper Cover, $1.50. Cloth-bound, $2.50.

IRIS FOR EVERY GARDEN

Everyone who loves iris will enjoy this book by Sidney B. Mitchell, the well-known Californian who pioneered the earlier development of the large yellow tall-bearded iris and whose experience covers nearly half a century. Much space is given to the beardless types, some of which can be grown successfully outside California, and there are numerous excellent line drawings in addition to color plate illustrations. 224 pages 5½"x8". Cloth-bound, $3.50.

Early Blooming Intermediate Iris

If you have been growing only the tall-bearded varieties of iris, the time will come when you will wish that you could stretch the season out longer. There IS a way to extend the iris season and the way to do it is—BACKWARD.

To really begin at the beginning you should have some dwarf iris, which start to bloom a month or so before the tall-bearded. But our purpose, on this page, is to interest you in the early-blooming intermediates.

The EARLY BLOOMING INTERMEDIATES are, generally speaking, the result of crossing dwarfs with tall bearded varieties and such hybrids are between the two in size, height and blooming season. Their height is between 16 and 28 inches and they have an unusual vivid clearness of coloring, although the color range is much more limited than among the later flowering tall-bearded varieties.

The intermediates are doubly valuable because they bloom at a period when there is a definite lull in the garden. Daffodils and spring-flowering shrubs are through blooming and although tulips bloom at this time, these are not happy everywhere and inclined to die out. Intermediate iris, on the other hand, have rugged constitutions and are generous in the profusion of bloom. The culture is the same as that of the tall-bearded.

As an extra dividend, some of these intermediates bloom again in the fall, if conditions are favorable, which implies that the plants are not allowed to become crowded, that moisture has been sufficient for new growth and that the fall temperatures hold favorable for this second crop of flowers.

Autumn Flowering Iris

Some bearded irises have a tendency to bloom in the fall as well as in the spring. These fall blooms are doubly welcome because of their rarity even when they are not of technical perfection. It should be realized that the rapid growth necessary for repeat bloom requires that seasons are favorable in length and rainfall and that the plants are uncrowded. Look up, in their respective classifications, among the dwarf, intermediate and tall-bearded the following fall bloomers:

Spuria Iris

These are beardless iris which resemble, in appearance, the bulbous Dutch and Spanish type. Their season of blooming follows that of the tall-bearded and Siberian. Although slower to increase than these they are quite dependable, distinctive and beautiful.

PLEASE NOTE: Spuria iris will be shipped only after September first and the minimum acceptable order is $3.00 unless order includes other plants to be shipped at the same time.

AZURE DAWN—(Nies). 4 ft. Smooth blue-lavender self except for the pale yellow signal patch. The smooth uniform coloring is very appealing $1.00

Japanese Iris

These beardless irises are the most spectacular of all. While they do not have the wide range of color enjoyed by the tall-bearded types, their exotic beauty, their tremendous size, accompanied by the grace and charm of form plus commanding stature, never fail to elicit exclamations of awe and delight from those who see them for the first time. While they are not difficult to grow, they are however, more demanding than bearded iris or daylilies. They are adapted to most of the United States, in moist areas in the south and with some winter protection in the north.

We are especially happy to be able to list a number of the new and superior American strain of Japanese irises, originated by the Indiana hybridist, Mr. W. A. Payne, and the result of 18 years of breeding. Along with their beauty, these have been bred for exceptional vigor, capable of withstanding midwest conditions.

Japanese irises will not tolerate lime and their leaves will turn yellow in its presence. They require good soil rich in organic matter such as manure or leaf mold, plus plenty of water during the pre-bloom season. Their blooming time is most opportune, following that of the Bearded, Siberian, Spuria and Louisiana varieties. The six- to nine-inch flowers are of spectacular beauty and can stand more hot sun than any of the afore-mentioned iris.

The plants we furnish are of typically Edenwald quality, which means equal to or better than any that you can obtain from any other source.

PLEASE NOTE: We will ship Japanese iris only in the fall, beginning around September 1st. Minimum order $3.00 please, or they may be shipped along with other plants at that time.

Siberian Iris

Every garden should include a planting of Siberian iris. Blooming at about the same time as the tall-bearded varieties, they are so very different that the contrast is most intriguing. They are beardless and have a much different petal formation.

Easy to grow and prodigious of bloom, an established clump often produces fifty or more tall, wiry flower stalks rising out of the mass of narrow-leaved artistic foliage. The flowers have a cool, crisp appearance and keep well when cut.

The newer varieties are taller and finer, the colors cleaner and brighter, and the flowers are larger and of better form than the old, outmoded varieties. The range of colors is limited to various shades of blue and purple; white; and bluish red.

They should be planted in early fall in ordinary garden soil which should not be allowed to dry out until plant is established. They may be grown in full sunlight or in partial shade. Better avoid lime and bonemeal because they prefer a slightly acid environment.

The Siberian iris plants we send you are not just single fans but rather, small clumps which have more strength and vigor to insure successful transplanting and earlier increase in your garden.

PLEASE NOTE: We will ship only after September first and the minimum acceptable order is $3.00 unless order is accompanied by other plants to be shipped at the same time.

FERRATA

The list of Siberian Iris is continued below from Perry's Blue to Zest. Only the first two are Louisiana Iris.

We are offering this year, two of the most easily grown and hardy hybrids of Louisiana iris. They have been tested for hardiness in northern sections as far as New England and Chicago, and afford an opportunity to experiment with this interesting type of beardless iris at low cost. Their blooming season follows that of the tall-bearded and they make a beautiful display in the garden besides furnishing excellent flowers for cutting and arrangements.

Shipped in September with other beardless types or daylilies.

SIBERIAN IRIS

Daylilies

The hemerocallis, commonly called daylily, is undergoing a period of development that is sure to result in top ranking for this flower as the most popular summer-blooming perennial. We have often termed it the fated flower of the future.

Adaptable to the climate of Maine or California, Canada or Florida, to soil of sand or clay, acid or alkaline, little affected by insects or diseases, tolerant of wetness or drought, sun or shade, holding its own against the encroachment of grass or weeds, growing stronger and more beautiful through the years, no other perennial can even approach the cheerful dependability of this remarkable plant.

Waxen, lily-like and mildly fragrant, the flowers range from two to eight inches across, depending upon the variety, with corresponding range in plant stature from less than two feet for foreground planting to over five feet for backgrounds.

The name "Hemerocallis" means beautiful for a day, because each day produces a fresh set of blooms, each variety with its characteristic diversity of form, compact or spidery, trumpet shaped or widely open and recurved, crisply tailored or delightfully frilled, and in colors which range from palest lemon to deepest golden, tan, brown, pink, rose, red, maroon and purple.

This profusion of bloom continues for a solid month, one of the hot summer months at that, and although most varieties bloom in midseason, selections can be made to provide bloom from iris time till frost. In our climate and farther south, early varieties often repeat in the fall.

To help you make the wisest choice we have indicated the varieties whose foliage remains green and lush until blasted by winter's cold. These evergreen varieties are best suited to milder climates being more susceptible to winter damage than are the deciduous types, whose nature is to become dormant upon the approach of winter. Although many of the so-called evergreen varieties can be grown in the north with little difficulty, others are quite tender and all should receive precautionary winter covering.

On the other hand, some deciduous varieties are unsuited to regions where no freezing occurs because a period of complete dormancy is necessary to them. You are advised to select the type adapted to your region for the most part, adding some of the others for experiment. Due to mixed breeding, some varieties are hard to classify exactly.

As with iris, the plants we furnish are freshly dug, strong divisions that will not disappoint. The date of flowering as noted refers to performance in our climate where the common roadside lily, "Fulva" begins to bloom about the middle of June.

PLEASE NOTE: We do not ship daylilies until late summer. Our season begins during the second half of August and continues until Nov. 1st. Due to handling and mailing costs, the minimum order $3.00 please.

Love Letters

"My neighbor and I have bought Iris from Oregon, Washington, Michigan and Colorado, but they do not compare with the ones I received from you. At the time we received the Iris from Washington and Oregon we thought they were grand, and they are, but not like those from you."

MICHIGAN

"Every Daylily I ordered from you last year is going to bloom. Beautiful plants!"

OHIO

"I am an Iris fan. I love them because they withstand our cold winters. And the lovely plants you ship always grow. I have never lost one."

MINNESOTA

"Most of the Irises which were planted very late last fall, have bloomed, 24 out of 29, and most exceeded expectations. They were a revelation of beauty."

PENNSYLVANIA

"I'm sending this order to you because your Iris are the best. Last year I backslid and ordered somewhere else and don't think I didn't live to regret it! Not a one bloomed, so I won't be so foolish again."

NORTH CAROLINA

"The Iris and Daylilies received from you last year, were the best I have bought. All but Iris Wabash bloomed and I think all the Daylilies are going to bloom."

NEW JERSEY

"The last ones I bought from you were wonderful! All bloomed the first year. Were such fine large rhizomes, just couldn't have been better, and every one came true to name."

GEORGIA

"I was so delighted with the quality of the plants you sent me last year that I am anxious to enlarge my garden."

VERMONT

"Thank you for sending me such fine fat rhizomes for the new garden. And I wish to particularly compliment you on the generous divisions of Japanese Iris and the excellent way in which they were packed."

NEW YORK

"I order quite a few plants from several different houses, but I have never received plants like yours. Last fall I ordered six Daylilies and this year all bloomed but one. Your Lilies and Iris are really nice and I wanted you to know how pleased I am."

KENTUCKY

"All of your Iris have performed wonderfully, and I do appreciate your catalog. In fact, it is always in my hip pocket—the tops of all the catalogs for ready reference."

CALIFORNIA

"I received my first order of Iris from you last year, all in good condition and all bloomed this year but one, a very good record, we think."

MASSACHUSETTS

"Must tell you how amused I was when a friend of mine who has 'shopped around' for Iris happened to see this order. 'Oh! New Iris,' he said, 'Good old Edenwald, you can't beat 'em.' That is the way I've always felt but was glad to see that he had finally settled on the same opinion."

PENNSYLVANIA

"We certainly were pleased with the lovely plants we received last year. Unfortunately, we moved so had to leave them behind. I saw them bloom though, and nothing could have been more beautiful. Such large perfect flowers we never had seen before. Now I want some in my new home."

NEBRASKA

"I wish to thank you for the fine plants you sent me last year. They all bloomed the first year and are fine."

IOWA

"I am very proud of my Iris and have given your address to many people. I have around a hundred named varieties. Your plants are the best I have had so far."

WISCONSIN

"Remember I was going to try growing bearded Iris in Orlando, Florida? I have had some success—four plants bloomed beautifully, which is encouraging. My rhizomes are in gallon cans and I am going to take them up and put them in cold storage through December. I just love the bearded Iris and want to learn how to grow them successfully here, where the winters do not get cold enough to make them dormant."

FLORIDA

Some think we work merely for money,

And probably no-one believes

That we're really (we know it sounds funny),

Working for letters like these.

"I am so pleased with your Iris that I can't resist ordering. I have about 150 named varieties and each year I think I'll not buy any this summer. And then your catalog comes. No will power."

MISSOURI

"Last year I ordered a collection of Iris from you. You should see the beautiful blooms! We had such a hard winter down south that I was afraid none would bloom. Am well pleased and want to add more."

ALABAMA

"Those rhizomes were the best I have ever had, so am giving you my order again. All were true to name as well as the largest and nicest in every way that I have ever seen. The flowers your rhizomes produce are out of this world. When they are in bloom and I go out in my garden early in the morning, it's like stepping out in a kind of heavenly domain."

VIRGINIA

"I have been delighted with the hemerocallis I bought from you last year. Most of them have or are going to bloom."

CONNECTICUT

"Time must be taken from a busy garden season to let you know how pleased I was with the Iris and Hemerocallis you sent me. There is no mistaking the vigorous quality of your plants."

ILLINOIS

"My first order arrived so promptly and such nice large fresh plants, that I am sending another. I also ordered from another grower and was so disappointed with the small dried up roots I received."

TEXAS

"Just a note to thank you for the extremely fine Iris rhizomes."

INDIANA

"Have tried other firms but your plants are the best I've found."

OKLAHOMA

"Frankly, I was tickled pink with the hems you sent me. I have bought from several growers but none came even near to yours. I have received such tiny divisions from some that you could put them in a vest pocket. That is the reason I am anxious to get some more of your stock."

CANADA

"The Iris I received last year from your Beginner's and Popularity Collections have been most rewarding. Of the twenty plants not one was lost in spite of the very trying winter and while not all of them bloomed, each day was an adventure as we waited to see what new and lovely thing would greet us next. I cannot remember having had more pleasure from my garden."

OHIO

"Thank you for the nicest lot of hemerocallis I have ever received from any nursery. I got them all planted before I left the first of September. Last week-end I returned to my summer place and found them all growing beautifully."

NORTH CAROLINA

"My little Iris border was beautiful beyond my wildest dreams in spite of the difficulty of growing flowers in this community. A nearby huge aluminum plant belches forth volumes of fluorine gas with bad effects on vegetation."

TENNESSEE

"I have been buying Iris for years. There are none better than the ones you ship."

NEW JERSEY

"They are as nice a lot of Iris as I have ever received from anyone and I sincerely hope that you will keep my name on your mailing list."

TEXAS

"Would like to tell you how pleased I am with the generous clumps and the splendid condition in which they arrived. This is my first year with Daylilies and had I known that your shipment would prove so superior to others, I would never have split my order."

GEORGIA

"If the Siberian Iris compare with the bearded Iris and Daylilies I have received from you in the past, I'm sure they will be worth the money. For years I thought Siberian and Spuria Iris would require lots more water than I could give them. However, I now have about fifteen varieties of each and they are doing nicely. My chief trouble is that with three hundred varieties of tall bearded, about a hundred and fifty Daylilies and a hodge podge of other flowers, I can't find time to do it all. If gardening was all I had to do I'd love it, but by the time I do everything else, keeping my stock farm running smoothly, gardening, canning, doing my own decorating of the house and sewing for three girls, I don't have nearly as much time to devote to my flowers as I would like."

OKLAHOMA

"The Irises purchased from you the past few years were perfectly fine." NEW YORK

"My Iris have been simply wonderful. About 150 visitors have called so far and I have given your address to many. I told them how kind you have always been—almost as though we had been personally acquainted. Thank you for many happy hours." MINNESOTA

"A friend gave me your catalog. She said the Iris she ordered from you last summer were the nicest plants she had ever bought and that all bloomed and were true to name." OHIO

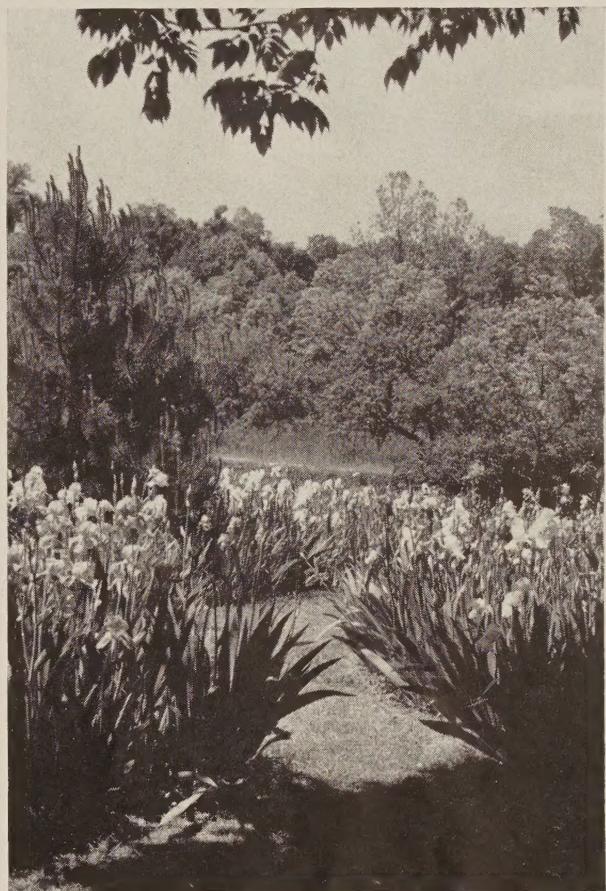

"Here I am again in line for a few more of your beautiful Iris. I have had wonderful luck with your large rhizomes. Every one blossomed except Blue Shimmer." MASSACHUSETTS

"I have never had such fine Iris from any other garden. It was a great pleasure to put them out because I know they will all bloom in the spring, probably two to three bloom stalks each!" MISSOURI

"I can well understand why you receive so many 'love letters.' The Iris and Daylilies I got from you last year are thriving beautifully. One variety even bloomed in November, which was a big thrill to a family just breaking in a new and barren homestead." PENNSYLVANIA

"Can't resist telling you how much I enjoy your catalog. Only limited space restrains me. I use your little book continually through the Iris season and have confidence in your descriptions. All stock I have ever received from you has proven more than satisfactory but the convenient size, as well as the personal notes make Edenwald catalog a very valued friend." MICHIGAN

Edenwald Gardens are glad to speak a laudatory word for the newest garden magazine, POPULAR GARDENING, and recommend that our readers make good use of the Introductory Offer Coupon enclosed.

Culture of IRIS and HEMEROCALLIS

These flowers are among the easiest of all for the unskilled gardener to grow to perfection. In addition to their indescribably beautiful flowers they yield generous and ever-continuing dividends in the form of increase.

With each shipment of plants we enclose a leaflet giving the simple instructions for their planting and care. You will not need to be born with a green thumb nor stir up any witches' brew for spraying or fertilizing to have a beautiful garden.

YOU CAN LEARN A LOT about the culture and the progress of irises and daylilies and, at the same time help to promote their further development, by joining these non-profit, mutually helpful societies:

AMERICAN IRIS SOCIETY, Geddes Douglas, Secy., Franklin Road, Brentwood, Tennessee. Publications—4 Quarterly Bulletins of over 100 pages each. Dues, $3.50 per year.

THE HEMEROCALLIS SOCIETY, Geo. E. Lenington, Sec'y., Box 139, Kansas City 10, Mo. Publications—Yearbook, chock full of interesting information about daylilies. Dues, $3.00 per year.

Mail your dues direct to the above addresses, or if you prefer you may include them with your order and we will forward.

PLANTS AS GIFTS

Those who have had the happy inspiration of giving plants, when the occasion called for a remembrance, know that nothing else they could devise, would serve so admirably for this purpose. For a flowering plant is a living thing, a remembrance whose recurrent display of delicate and refined beauty is a constant reminder of the giver's thoughtfulness and a sure way of keeping the memory green.

We are always happy to serve as the intermediary in executing orders intended for gifts, and send a printed card to the donee, when requested, announcing that we have been authorized by the donor to ship the plants at the proper planting time. Gift shipments are accompanied by a shipping list but prices are omitted. They can also be accompanied by the donor's card, sent to us for that purpose, if no message is enclosed so that postal regulations will not be violated. It is not practical to time shipments for any dead-line dates but if your order is received in time it will be scheduled for shipment as nearly as possible in conformity with your wishes.

The map at right shows our central location which enables us to supply you with freshly-dug plants which will find themselves "at home" in your garden and will not need an extra year for acclimatization before blooming. The circle is drawn on a 600-mile radius, hardly more than a day's drive.
